

Car stunt man in dock

A MAN whose car overturned after attempting stunts has been referred to the Public Prosecution, the General Directorate of Traffic announced in a statement yesterday.

The directorate also urged parents to pay attention to their children's behaviour to reduce such dangerous actions. No further details were available.