

Jewellery theft at airport

AN Asian has been arrested for allegedly stealing jewellery worth BD10,000 from Bahrain International Airport.

Police also arrested four accomplices who helped him sell the stolen jewellery. Criminal Investigation and Forensic Sciences director general said the 41-year-old – a cleaning worker in a company at the airport – was arrested after airport police reported the theft. The case has been referred to the Public Prosecution, he said.